The Platform enables Users to purchase Digital Content intended for use exclusively within the Game. Such Digital Content includes, without limitation:

- Virtual Currency (Crystals);
- digital cards;
- fixed card bundles;
- cosmetic items;
- game boosts;
- other digital game content made available by the Company.

All purchasable Digital Content available on the Platform is supplied directly by the Company.

The Platform is not a marketplace, auction service, exchange, investment service, brokerage, or financial institution.

The Company may modify, update, suspend, or discontinue any part of the Platform or the Services at any time where reasonably necessary for operational, technical, security, maintenance, or legal reasons.

5. Digital Content

The Company may make Digital Content available for purchase or use within the Platform.

All Digital Content is provided solely for entertainment and gameplay purposes within the Game.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, your purchase of Digital Content grants you a limited, personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to access and use such Digital Content within the Game.

The purchase of Digital Content does not transfer ownership or any intellectual property rights to you.

Users should not purchase, acquire, or use Digital Content with the expectation of generating profit, financial return, appreciation in value, or any other investment benefit.

Except where functionality is expressly provided by the Game, you may not:

- sell or attempt to sell Digital Content;
- transfer Digital Content outside the Platform;
- sublicense or commercially exploit Digital Content;
- use Digital Content for any unlawful purpose.

The Company may modify, rebalance, replace, remove, discontinue, or introduce Digital Content at any time where reasonably necessary to maintain gameplay balance, technical functionality, security, legal compliance, or the overall operation of the Game.

6. Purchases

The Company may offer Digital Content for purchase through the Platform.

The Company acts as the sole supplier of all Digital Content available for purchase through the Platform.

All prices for Digital Content are determined solely by the Company and may be modified, withdrawn, or updated at any time prior to the completion of a purchase.

All prices displayed to consumers are inclusive of any applicable UK VAT unless expressly stated otherwise. No additional mandatory fees will be added at checkout beyond the price shown.

The Company reserves the right to reject, suspend, or cancel any transaction prior to its completion where reasonably necessary, including but not limited to situations involving:

- suspected fraud;
- payment authorization failures;
- technical errors;
- pricing inaccuracies;
- legal or regulatory requirements;
- suspected violations of these Terms.

Upon successful completion of a purchase, the purchased Digital Content will be made available to the User's Account in accordance with these Terms.

The Company may use third-party payment service providers to process transactions. The Company is not responsible for delays, interruptions, or failures attributable to such payment providers.

7. Virtual currency

Nothing contained within the Platform shall be interpreted as granting Users any right to exchange Digital Content for real-world value.

The only payments made by the Company to individuals are Affiliate Commissions earned under the Affiliate Program in accordance with the applicable Affiliate Program Terms. Such payments are independent from gameplay, ownership or use of Digital Content.

9. Affiliate program

The Company may operate an Affiliate Program under separate Affiliate Program Terms.

Participation in the Affiliate Program is subject to successful identity verification and compliance with the Company's AML & KYC Policy. An applicant will become eligible to receive a referral link only after successfully completing the required verification procedures.

Participation in the Affiliate Program is voluntary and independent from participation in the Game.

Affiliate commissions are earned solely through eligible referral activities carried out in accordance with the applicable Affiliate Program Terms.

Any payments made under the Affiliate Program represent compensation for successful referral services and are not related to:

- ownership of Digital Content;
- Virtual Currency balances;
- gameplay achievements;
- the transfer or exchange of in-game items;
- the value of any digital assets within the Game.

10. Payments

Payments for Digital Content may be processed by independent third-party payment service providers.

By submitting payment information, you authorize the applicable payment provider to process your transaction in accordance with its own terms and privacy practices.

Where required by law or reasonably necessary for fraud prevention, the Company may request additional information before processing or completing a transaction.

The Company reserves the right to refuse or cancel any payment that appears suspicious, unauthorized, fraudulent, or inconsistent with these Terms.

11. Refunds

Unless otherwise required by applicable law, all purchases of Digital Content are final unless otherwise expressly stated on the Platform.

Because Digital Content is supplied immediately by electronic means, you consent to the immediate performance of the contract upon purchase and acknowledge that you lose your statutory right to cancel under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013.

The Company may, at its sole discretion, consider refund requests on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the circumstances of the purchase and applicable legal requirements.

Refunds will generally not be granted where:

- the purchased Digital Content has already been delivered to your Account;
- the Digital Content has been used or consumed;

- the request relates to a change of mind;
- the purchase resulted from a breach of these Terms;
- the request is fraudulent, abusive, or otherwise made in bad faith.

If a payment is cancelled, reversed, charged back, or otherwise invalidated after Digital Content has been credited to your Account, the Company reserves the right to remove the corresponding Digital Content, suspend or terminate your Account, and recover any improperly granted benefits.

Nothing in this section limits any statutory consumer rights that cannot be excluded under applicable law or affects your right to raise a dispute or chargeback request with your card issuer or payment provider in accordance with their own procedures.

The Platform, the Game, all Digital Content, software, graphics, text, images, audio, video, trademarks, logos, databases, and all other materials available through the Platform are owned by or licensed to the Company and are protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

Except for the limited license expressly granted under these Terms, no rights, title, or interest in the Platform or any of its content are transferred to you.

You may not reproduce, copy, distribute, modify, publicly display, create derivative works from, or otherwise exploit any part of the Platform without the Company's prior written consent.

- required by applicable law, regulatory requirements, or a competent authority;
- necessary to protect the Company, other Users, or the integrity of the Platform.

Upon termination, any licenses granted to you under these Terms shall immediately cease.

The Company may also discontinue the Platform or any part of the Services, or terminate User Accounts, where it decides to cease providing the Platform, a particular Service, or certain features. Where reasonably practicable, the Company will provide prior notice of such discontinuation.

15. Disclaimer of warranties

The Platform, the Game, the Services, and all Digital Content are provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis.

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company disclaims all warranties, representations, and guarantees, whether express, implied, or statutory, including any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, accuracy, availability, or uninterrupted operation.

The Company does not warrant that:

- the Platform will be available at all times;
- the Platform will be free from errors or interruptions;
- any defects will be corrected without delay;
- the Platform will meet your particular expectations or requirements.

Nothing in this section excludes or limits any right you have under the Consumer Rights Act 2015 in relation to digital content that is faulty, not as described, or not fit for purpose, including your rights to repair, replacement, price reduction, or refund where applicable.

16. Limitation of liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, exemplary, or punitive damages arising out of or relating to your access to or use of the Platform, including any loss of profits, revenue, business opportunities, data, goodwill, or business interruption.

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any other liability that cannot be excluded or limited under applicable law.

This section does not affect your statutory rights under the Consumer Rights Act 2015 or any other consumer protection law that cannot be excluded or limited by agreement.

17. Force Majeure

The Company shall not be liable for any delay or failure to perform its obligations where such delay or failure results from events beyond its reasonable control, including natural disasters, war, acts of government, cyberattacks, telecommunications failures, labor disputes, or interruptions affecting third-party service providers.

18. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Company, its directors, officers, employees, affiliates, contractors, and service providers from and against any claims, liabilities, damages, losses, costs, and expenses, including reasonable legal fees, arising out of or relating to:

- your violation of these Terms;
- your misuse of the Platform;
- your violation of applicable law;
- your infringement of the rights of any third party.

This obligation survives the termination of these Terms and your use of the Platform.

19. Privacy

The collection, use, storage, and protection of personal data are governed by the Company's Privacy Policy, which forms an integral part of these Terms.

By using the Platform, you acknowledge that your personal data may be processed in accordance with the Privacy Policy and applicable data protection laws.

20. Third-party services

The Platform may contain links to third-party websites, applications, payment service providers, or other services that are not owned or controlled by the Company.

The Company is not responsible for the availability, content, privacy practices, or operation of any third-party services.

Your use of any third-party services is subject to the terms and policies of the respective third party.

21. Changes to the Platform and these Terms

The Company may modify, update, suspend, or discontinue any part of the Platform, the Services, or any Digital Content at its sole discretion.

The Company may also revise these Terms from time to time to reflect changes in applicable laws, regulatory requirements, business operations, or the functionality of the Platform.

The revised Terms become effective upon their publication on the Platform unless a later effective date is specified.

Your continued use of the Platform following the publication of updated Terms constitutes your acceptance of the revised Terms.

22. Governing law and dispute resolution

These Terms shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales, without regard to conflict of law principles.

Any dispute arising out of or relating to these Terms or the use of the Platform shall be submitted to the courts having jurisdiction over the Company's registered office, unless mandatory provisions of applicable law require otherwise.
